
SYLLABUS

I. PURPOSE:

- A. To develop a model of intervention that fits the theory of the model taught in Counselling I: Theory.
- B. To understand and gain facility or ability in using specific counselling strategies and techniques.
- C. To anticipate problems in the counselling process (eg. resistance, abstractness) and to suggest strategies for responding to them in a biblical way.

II. ASSIGNMENTS

	Grade	Due
A. Reading of Texts	25%
Read/skim all five textbooks and write a short personal reflection and summary of each book.
1. Inside Out by Larry Crabb	5%
2. The Divine Romance by Gene Edwards	5%
3. The Sacred Romance by John Eldredge and Brent Curtis	5%
4. Disappointment with God by Philip Yancey	5%
5. Loving God by Charles Colson	5%
B. Read "How to Listen to a Tape" Write a summary	5%

- C. Prayer Journal 5%
1. After each class, write out your heart response to God the Father in the form of a personal prayer.
 2. These are to be kept confidential between you and God. If you choose to share any part, it can be done in class or with another student. I will give opportunity at the beginning of each class for anyone to read from their prayer journal.
 3. At the end of Counselling 1, turn in a note stating how many prayer journals entries you wrote.
- D. Personal Journey of Pleasure and Pain 35%
- Outlines will be given to you in class to follow.
- | | |
|--------|-----|
| Part 1 | 15% |
| Part 2 | 10% |
| Part 3 | 10% |
- E. Final Review Grade Value: 30% Due Date:
1. Will cover the class notes for the entire course.
 2. Will be given as in-class review.
 3. Will be primarily looking for your understanding and application of the counselling process.

III. CLASS DATES: