The completion of the application process does not imply acceptance. After all the necessary information is submitted you will be notified of the decision of the IBCI Registrar.

The 10-Course Diploma Program requires the attendance, in person, for several of the course modules. These modules often require the necessity of community living for periods up to two weeks. All students will be sent the "IBCI Expectations & Responsibilities of Community Living" for their review and agreement.

Privacy is important to us. Your personal information is not shared with any other agency and its use is exclusive to IBCI and its partner organization Providence Theological Seminary. Personal information is used in the application process and to subsequently communicate with the applicant as a student and later as alumni for the benefit of IBCI and its alumni constituency.
